Assets page

Updated 9 months ago

The Assets page shows the distribution of each asset across your vault accounts, exchange accounts, and fiat accounts and allows you to easily transfer the selected asset. The combined total balance for all of your accounts appears in USD at the top of the page.

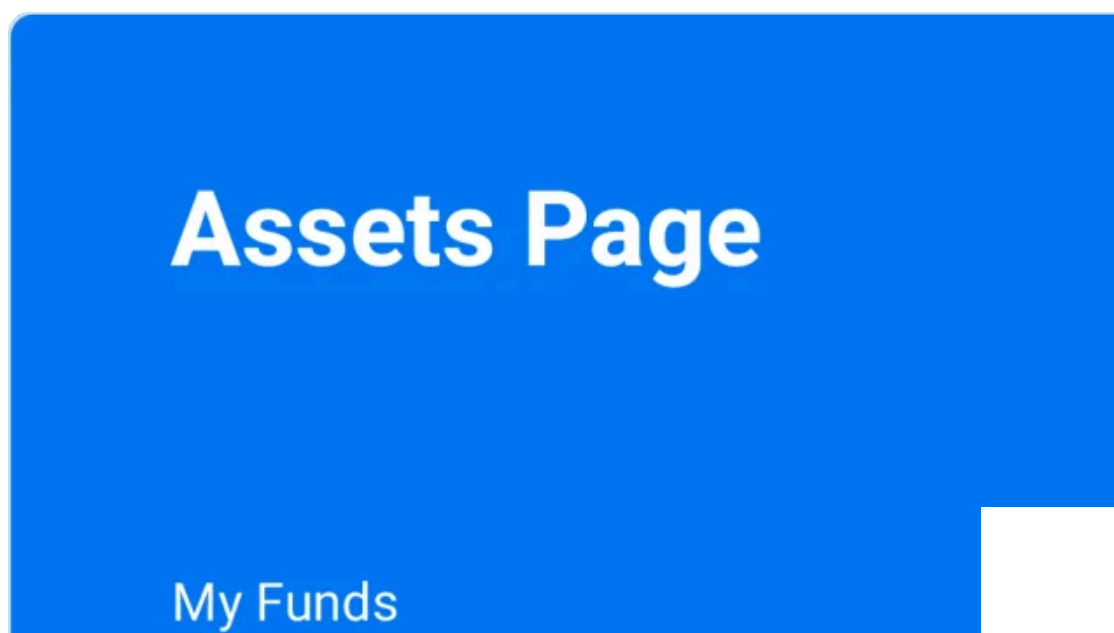

Note

Your total asset balance includes accounts that are archived or hidden from view in the Fireblocks Console and funds from transactions that have been frozen by your AML policy.

Known issue

Only assets held in exchange main accounts are displayed on this page. Assets held in trading or sub-accounts are not displayed here.
